

Law and Coercion: the Role of Public and Private Enforcement in Law
6th MetaLawEcon Workshop

10–11 December 2015

Jointly organized by the Amsterdam Center for Law & Economics, the Paul Scholten Centre for Jurisprudence at the University of Amsterdam and the interdisciplinary network MetaLawEcon.

Program

(as of 1 December)

Thursday, 10 December

9.00 Doors open

9.15 Introduction (Bas Schotel & Peter Cserne)

9.30 Coercion

Chair: Kati Cseres

9.30 Assaf Sharon: Coercion and Law – The Republican Reconciliation of Legal Enforcement with Individual Liberty

Discussant: Verena Risse

10.15 Lucas Miotto: The Coerciveness of Legal Systems

Discussant: Steve Riley

11.00 Verena Risse: Rightful Coercion: Grounding the Legitimate Exercise of Coercion in Individual Rights

Discussants: Lucas Miotto & Alon Harel

12.00 Lunch

13.30 Public/Private 1

Chair: Roland Pierik

13.30 Alon Harel: Against Privatization as Such (invited talk)

Discussant: Bas Schotel

14.30 Coffee break

15.00 Public/Private 2

Chair: Bas Schotel

15.00 Greg DeAngelo: Private Security and the Provision of International Public Goods

Discussants: Rustam Romaniuc & Fernando Gómez

15.45 Gergely Deli: The Censorial Regimen Morum: A Vehicle between Private and Public Enforcement

Discussant: Marc de Wilde

16.30 Roland Pierik: State Coercion and Routine Childhood Vaccination

Discussants: Laure D'Hondt & Assaf Sharon

17.15 End of day 1

19.00 Conference dinner

Friday, 11 December

9.30 Enforcement 1

Chair: Alon Harel

9.30 Andrzej Baniak: Private Enforcement, Corruption, and Antitrust Design

Discussants: Jan Broulík & Maarten Pieter Schinkel

10.15 Rustam Romaniuc: The Perils of Formal Norm-Enforcement

Discussants: Jeroen van de Ven

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Enforcement 2

Chair: Maarten Pieter Schinkel

11.30 Fernando Gómez: Heterogeneity of Agents and Law Enforcement: A Missing Piece (invited talk)

Discussant: Andrzej Baniak

12.30 Lunch

13.30 Enforcement 3

Chair: Peter Cserne

13.30 Donatas Murauskas: Enforcing Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights: the Reputational Payoff as a Factor to Compensate the Lack of Coercive Powers

Discussant: Fabrizio Esposito & Gergely Deli

14.15 Laure d'Hondt: Interchanging Regulation and Seeking Redress: The problematic Responses to Industrial River Pollution in Indonesia

Discussants: Greg DeAngelo & Donatas Murauskas

15.00 Closing Drinks

Invited papers are allocated 60 minutes, other papers 45 minutes. This includes 15 min for presentation (30 min for invited talks), 5 min (per discussant) for comment, and 20 to 25 min for general discussion.