

MetaLawEcon 2.0

Theoretical and Methodological Foundations of Law and Economics

Special Workshop at the XXVth World Congress of Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy
(Frankfurt am Main, 15 August 2011)

Agenda

14:35-15:10 Alon Harel (Jerusalem): Commensurability and Agency: Two Yet-To-Be-Met Challenges for Law and Economics

15:10-15:45 Régis Lanneau (Paris X): What is law from the law and economics point of view

15:45-16:20 Mariusz Golecki (Łódź): Foundationalism vs. antifoundationalism. Some remarks on law and economics as a jurisprudential theory

16:20-16:45 COFFEE BREAK

16:45-17:20 Helen Eenmaa (Yale): Normative Differences among Forms of Liability and the Limits of the Economic Analysis of Law

17:20-17:55 Carsten Gerner-Beuerle (LSE): Comparative Corporate Governance for the 21st Century

17:55-18:30 Diego Moreno-Cruz (Genova): Three Explanatory and Predictive Realistic Strategies of Judicial Decisions Confronted
