

MetaLawEcon
a TILEC workshop on the foundations of law and economics
Friday, 26 Nov 2010, Tilburg University

08:30–09:00 Registration

09:00–09:15 Welcome address: Pierre Larouche

Session 1 Chair: Firat Cengiz

09:15–10:15 Régis Lanneau (Université Paris Nanterre): Economic analysis of law and philosophy of science

Comment: Bart du Laing (University of Ghent)

10:15–11:15 Wojciech Zaluski (Jagellonian University, Kraków): Game theory and legal interpretation

Comment: Péter Cserne (Tilburg University)

11:15–11:45 Coffee break

Session 2 Keynote speech. Chair: Pierre Larouche

11:45–12:45 Lewis A. Kornhauser (New York University): Models in the economic analysis of law

12:45–14:00 Buffet lunch, Tilbury's

Session 3 Chair: Cédric Argenton

14:00–15:00 Stephan Tontrup (Max Planck Institute, Bonn–Jena): Experimental law and economics

Comment: Georg von Wangenheim (University of Kassel)

15:00–16:00 Giuseppe Dari-Mattiacci (University of Amsterdam): Property rules and liability rules

Comment: Eric van Damme (Tilburg University)

16:00–16:30 Coffee break

Session 4 Chair: Eric van Damme

16:30–17:30 Special guest

Ejan Mackaay (University of Montréal): Civil law and common law under economic analysis

Comment: Pierre Larouche (Tilburg University)

17:30–18:30 'The Problem of Social Cost' at 50

Aristides Hatzis (University of Athens): Misconceptions, misunderstandings and misuses of the Coase theorem

Mariusz Golecki (University of Łódź): Homo oeconomicus vs. homo iuridicus. Two views on the Coase theorem and the integrity of discourse within law and economics scholarship

18:30–19:00 Closing drinks